First Embroidery Stitches

ANCHOR NEEDLEWORK SERIES

No. 1

PRICE ONE SHILLING

<http://www.knitting-and.com>

The intention of this booklet is to offer the young child a happy and simple introduction to embroidery.

Since the illustrations are self-explanatory and the designs easily reproduced on loosely-woven fabrics, no printed instructions require to be followed.

Only the formations of very simple stitches are shown thus:—

Pages	1-4	Variations of Running Stitch.
Page	5	Cross Stitch.
"	6	Herring Bone Stitch.
"	7	Decoration of Hems with Running and Cross Stitch.
"	8	Illustrations embodying each stitch shown.
Inside Back } Cover }		Blank page for child's own designs.

The child achieves complete and unaided self-expression by bringing the needle and thread through the material at the correct places to reproduce the illustration. This simple method avoids the preparation—by parent or teacher—of drawings and the use of transfers, and permits the child to work on his or her own initiative.

Certain colour combinations are illustrated here, but the specimens can be worked in a wide range of colours according to individual tastes.
